BIOGRAPHY OF

Dr. Conte M. Terrell

Minister, Christian Counselor, Speaker and Author

Dr. Conte M. Terrell, an ordained Minister, is a dynamic, electrifying speaker and orator. Dr. Conte M. Terrell is a survivor of a ten-year marriage to a physically abusive spouse. You may have seen, read or heard her awesome testimony, via television, radio, magazines or books. This experience led her to obtaining a Master degree and becoming a Christian Counselor. She then, founded Fresh Spirit Wellness for Women, Inc. a non-profit organization that empowers women and youth, to overcome unexpected challenges due to verbal, emotional, physical or sexual abuse.

Over the past five years, she has counseled over 1,200 women and youth; helping them to have a life of hope and victory. She has been an advocate for domestic and sexual violence for the last 18 years. Also, Fresh Spirit Wellness for Women, Inc. annually hosts the Hope Legacy Awards, which raises awareness and funds for victims and victors of domestic violence.

Dr. Conte Terrell has been invited to speak on occasions ranging from Church events, Conferences, and Retreats, to Cruises, T.V & Radio Shows, Conventions and Fortune companies. She has recently completed a Doctorial degree in Clinical Christian Counseling from Jacksonville Theological Seminary.

She hosts The Conte Terrell Show "Where the hurt turns to healing," a cable talk show for women. She has used one of her many gifts to complete her first self-help and inspirational book for women "Deliverance to a Fresh Spirit" a 12- step guide to overcoming and ending toxic relationships. By using her real life situations and her desire to see people made whole, she has changed the lives of many. She has been recognized and honored on numerous occasions for her outstanding leadership and community service, including this year's issue of Who's Who in Black Houston.
